Information collected from you indirectly

We may also collect Personal Data from you when you interact with our websites or social media accounts. We may collect this data by using Cookies (small files that are stored on your computer or mobile device). We utilise Cookies so that we can record how many times you have visited our website and which parts of our website you have visited before. Cookies may be used to provide you with information that you are interested in or to deliver our advertisements on other web sites and services.

Many web browsers allow you to manage your preferences regarding Cookies. You can set your browser to block cookies or delete certain Cookies. You may be able to manage other technologies in the same way that you manage Cookies using your browser's preferences.

Sharing This Information

We will not pass your details onto any other organisation unless we are required to do so by law (for example, if required to do so by a court order or for the purposes of prevention of fraud or other crime).

This privacy policy applies only to our site, so you should always be aware of this when moving from this site to another site. You should always read the privacy statement of any site which collects personal information. We do not pass on any personal information about MSL or DASL visitors, customers or suppliers to any other site.

Information Automatically Collected From Your PC

Log files/IP addresses: When you visit the site our web server automatically records your IP address. This IP address is not linked to any of your personal information. We use IP addresses to help us administer the site and to collect demographic information for aggregation purposes.

We may also gather other non-personal information (from which we cannot identify you) such as the type of your internet browser which we use to provide you with a more effective service.

When you visit the site we may store some information (commonly known as a “cookie”) on your computer. Cookies are pieces of information that a website transfers to your hard drive to store and sometimes track information about you. Cookies are specific to the server that created them and cannot be accessed by other servers, which means that they cannot be used to track your movements around the web. Passwords and credit card numbers are not stored in cookies. A cookie helps you get the best out of the site and helps us to provide you with a more customised service.

We use cookies for the following purposes:

- So that you do not have to re-enter your details each time you visit the site
- To track how our site is used and to improve and update our content
- To authenticate users on the website
- To understand how users navigate through our website using Google Analytics provided by Google Inc (we then use the information gathered to compile reports to improve the functionality and user experience of our website, all information collected is anonymous)

You can block or erase cookies from your computer if you want to (your browser’s help screen or manual should tell you how to do this).

Changes To Your Details

We aim to keep our information about you as accurate as possible. If you would like to review or change the details you have supplied us with, please contact us.

Security

We have implemented technology and policies to safeguard your privacy from unauthorised access and improper use. We use secure server software (SSL) to encrypt any financial information you need to input before it is sent to us.

Linking To Third Party Websites

We cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of other sites even if you access them using links from our Site and recommend that you check the policy of each site you visit and contact its owner or operator if you have any concerns or questions.

In addition, if you linked to this Site from a third party site, we cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of the owners or operators of that third party site and recommend that you check the policy of that third party site and contact its owner or operator if you have any concerns or questions.

Changes To This Privacy Policy

If this privacy policy changes in any way, we will place an updated version on this page. Regularly reviewing this page ensures you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it.
